¹ The Southern District of Ohio’s CJA Plan (the “CJA Plan”), as well as the federal judiciary’s Guidelines for Administering the CJA (the “CJA Guidelines”), allow for appointment and compensation of more than one attorney, in a non-capital case, if the Court determines that the case is “complex” and that the interests of justice so require. CJA Plan IV(C)(1); Guide to Judiciary Policy Vol. 7 Part A, CJA Guidelines, Ch. 2, §§ 230.23.10(f), 230.53.20 (2016). The Court previously determined that this case is “complex” based on, inter alia, the nature of the proceedings, voluminous discovery, and the hundreds of anticipated witnesses. (Min. Entry & Not. Order, July 8, 2015).
